"When the light of the real self shines, it is truly illuminated"

Like a mirror, astrology allows us to observe ourselves. Where the mirror provides a reflection of our physical appearance, the astrological chart provides insight into the deep layers of our inner being. It challenges us to look at our life lessons so we may understand where we need to place our attention. The planets serve as guide points ~ symbols of our potential and aspirations. Your personal astrological chart can:

- * Identify your strengths
- * Affirm your individuality
- * Improve / harmonize relationships
- * Discover your options, resources and life challenges
- * Learn valuable personal insights
- * Unblock emotional truths
- * Release subconscious blocks
- * Embrace your uniqueness and creative expression

We discover ways to restructure certain areas of our life not working for us and strengthen our internal structure. When we look deeper into the astrological "mirror" we can explore our emotional needs and desires.

Whether it is to further our understanding of ourselves, discover the dynamics of our relationships, find hidden talents or learn beneficial ways to maintain our health and beauty, astrology identifies and brings about changes that impact our lives. With this powerful knowledge, we gain tremendous strength and vitality.

The cost of your chart depends on the kind of reading you request. For a rewarding and informative experience, please call for more information: 509-475-4979

About Astrological Counselor Michele Mokre'

I began my professional astrology career in 1987 after twenty years of study. In addition to my practice, I have written for various astrological magazines, and was the editor of "AstroMind", a national magazine promoting astrological education and technical studies.

My astrological focus is always to transform your challenges into opportunities and help you find productive insights that open the gate to philosophical perspectives and new approaches. I've developed my particular style with a decided emphasis toward soul development and purpose.

Since starting my practice I have had many clients seek advice and counsel. I believe that astrology redeems its value in reflection, and allows us to observe ourselves with defined clarity.

Astrological Counselor

"When the light of the real self shines, it is truly illuminated"

Natal Birth Chart Consultation:

An in-depth interpretation of your horoscope discussing basic life patterns: Strengths, challenges, your soul purpose and more. This is the most thorough, in-depth interpretation of your birth chart. Specific questions can be addressed. This consultation takes about 90 minutes.

Current Life Cycles:

This chart reading will cast a light on yearly trends. As the planets move in their orbit, they symbolize opportunities and challenges presented to you. This update of planetary patterns will help you understand and fully utilize the cycles and circumstances of your life. The consultation takes 1 hour and is only recommended after a natal consultation.

Astrological Counseling:

This is for those of you who like working with astrological symbolism and would like additional assistance to resolve personal and professional issues. Focusing on specific issues helps dissolve blockages as well as bring clarity into areas of struggle.

Relationship & Compatibility Charts:

The planetary dynamics between two people are as infinite as the stars. This reading explores your personal relationships and their dynamics, and pinpoints areas of harmony and conflict, specializing in finding ways to grow and then learn from one another.

Family Dynamics:

Includes the charts of all family members and explains the individual compatibility between everyone.

Children/Baby Charts:

A wonderful gift for a new born or child, and a valuable and practical tool to help parents experience the world through the eyes of their child. Not only does it target specific needs, but it helps identify their learning style and talents.

Optional: A child's chart may be done with parental charts to clarify family dynamics.
